MOTION TO WITHDRAW AS DEBTORS' COUNSEL

COMES NOW Richard G. Hall, and moves to withdraw as the Debtors' counsel, and in support thereof he states as follows

1. This case began as two separate Chapter 11 proceedings. The case of Linda Amellino was filed on November 6, 2020, and the case of Michael Armellino (20-12579-BFK) was filed on November 23, 2020. The two cases were substantively consolidated under the current case number by an order of the Court entered on February 18, 2021, (Dkt. 44).

2. The applicant served as the Debtors' counsel throughout the chapter 11 proceeding(s) from the day they were filed; the application for appointment as debtor's counsel in the case of Linda Armellino was filed on November 6, 2020, and was approved by an order entered by this court on December 16, 2020, and the application for appointment as the debtor's counsel in the case of Michael Armellino was filed on November 24, 2020, 2020, and was approved by an order entered on December 16, 2020.

3. On or about February 3, 2022 an irreparable and serious breach arose between counsel and the Debtors. Based on a discussion with Michael Armellino, counsel believes that he no longer has the confidence of the Debtors, and that he can no longer represent them effectively in this case.

WHEREFORE your applicant prays for the entry of an Order withdrawing his appearance in this case, and for such other relief as may be needed.
